

2017 National Leadership Conference

Dress Code

Thursday, July 13

- Any Kappa Delta Chi shirt with Greek letters, Kappa Delta Chi nickname, and/or Kappa Delta Chi spelled out
 - KDChi shirts or tank tops are only permitted in the colors of pink, maroon, white, black, and/or gray. No spaghetti straps are allowed to be worn.
- Pants, capris, shorts, and/or jeans are permitted. (No tears, rips, holes, leggings, jeggings, etc.)
- Close toed shoes i.e. ballet flats, clean sneakers, etc. (No flip flops)

Disclaimer:

- There will be interactive and offsite activities and it is mandatory that comfortable shoes are worn.

Friday, July 14

- AM - Business
 - Professional Business Attire for Conference Workshops & Activities during the day
 - Business skirt or pantsuits are preferred (skirts no shorter than 4" above the knee)
 - Cap sleeve shirts are to be worn with a jacket/blazer
 - Cardigans are not permitted
 - Polo shirts worn alone are not permitted, but can be worn under a jacket/blazer
 - Shirts with any portion that is see-through is not permitted
 - Jacket/blazer
 - Skirts and dresses with coordinated jackets are also acceptable
 - No open toe shoes or clogs are permitted
 - Maximum height of any heels worn cannot exceed 5"
 - Hosiery should be worn in coordination with business attire
 - All clothing should be appropriately pressed
 - All body artwork, such as tattoos, and body piercings are to be covered and not visible

- PM - Casual
 - Kappa Delta Chi attire (see below) is welcome but is not required as the time after sisterhood night is open and not a part of the official conference activities. If you wish to wear Kappa Delta Chi paraphernalia, please keep in mind to bring a change of clothes if you want to partake in sightseeing.
 - Any Kappa Delta Chi shirt with Greek letters, Kappa Delta Chi nickname, and/or Kappa Delta Chi spelled out
 - Pants, capris, shorts, and/or jeans are permitted. (No tears, rips, holes, leggings, jeggings, etc.)

Disclaimer:

- There will be interactive and offsite activities. Comfortable shoes are recommended.

Saturday, July 15

- Professional Business Attire for Conference Workshops & Activities during the day
 - Business skirt or pantsuits are preferred (skirts no shorter than 4" above the knee)
 - Cap sleeve shirts are to be worn with a jacket/blazer
 - Cardigans are not permitted
 - Polo shirts worn alone are not permitted, but can be worn under a jacket/blazer
 - Shirts with any portion that is see-through is not permitted
 - Jacket/blazer
 - Skirts and dresses with coordinated jackets are also acceptable
 - No open toe shoes or clogs are permitted
 - Maximum height of any heels worn cannot exceed 5"
 - Hosiery should be worn in coordination with business attire
 - All clothing should be appropriately pressed
 - All body artwork, such as tattoos, and body piercings are to be covered and not visible
- Gala Attire
 - Semi-formal attire
 - Cocktail dress
 - Maximum height of heels worn cannot exceed 5"

Sunday, July 16

- Conference Business Casual Attire
 - Undergraduates or Inactive Alumnae:
 - Official Kappa Delta Chi Greek letter shirt
 - Khaki Pants/Slacks in either brown, khaki/beige, black, or blue
 - Closed-toed shoes including ballet flats, heels (with a maximum height of 5”), or clean sneakers
 - Active Alumnae:
 - Official NAA polo
 - Khaki pants/Slacks
 - Close toed shoes including ballet flats, maximum height of heels worn cannot exceed 5”, clean sneakers

If you have any further questions about attire for national conference, please contact the Vice President of Records, Connie Ann Tucker, at records@kappadeltachi.org, as she is the Sergeant-at-Arms at national conference and will be monitoring attire.

Any sisters not in compliance with attire, as noted above, will be asked to change and will only be able to resume participation in conference activities and/or workshops once compliance is met.